This building which is located in the middle of the block is a three story high, three bay wide rowhouse. The wall is made of stones. The door is rectangular, made of wood and is located on the left side of the building. The steps are made of stone encompassed by a stone wall on the street side.

The windows are double hung with one-over-one lights and stone sills. The cornice is underlined by a row of dentils and is made of wood. The building is similar in height and width to the other buildings and is in good condition.

Of special note are the decorative dormer windows which are placed in the mansard roof. The major dormer consisting of two rectangular, double-hung windows with one-over-one lights is topped by a pointed pediment within which is a carved decorative garland.
